At our lunch, Company Name and Oracle Fusion specialists will shed new light on your specific path to Fusion, and how to increase your agility, thereby maximizing your IT investment. Begin the new year by investigating:

- Innovative business strategies and new IT requirements that can overcome increasing market challenges.
- Robust application architecture and required integration with internal and external systems that drives business value and ROI.
- High performance technology and infrastructure architecture that lays the foundation for IT success.

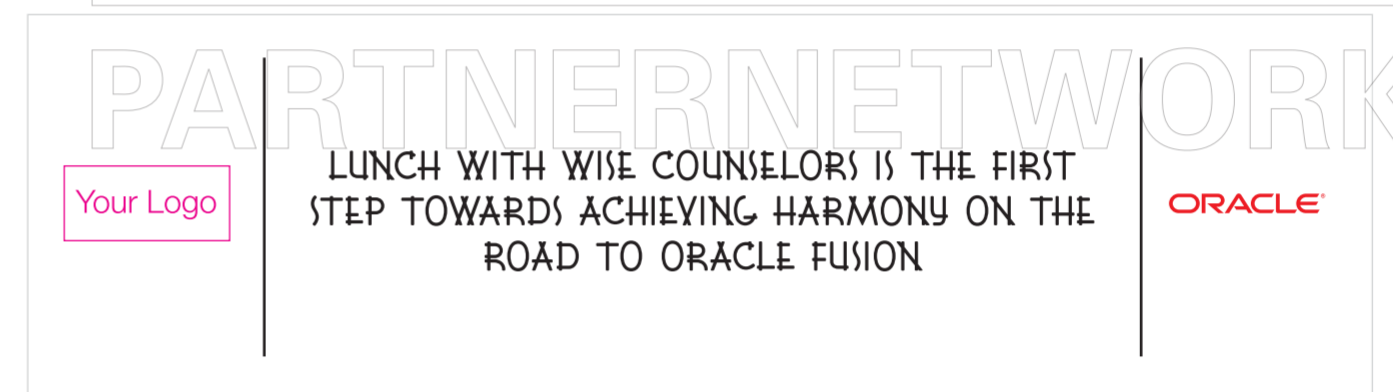

A representative will be contacting you shortly. However feel free to contact Contact Name at Phone Number, if you have any questions.
